AGENDA ITEM: Discussion and Action on Biwabik Campground Operations

BACKGROUND: The City Council has had a considerable amount of discussion regarding the City's campground. The main areas of concern that will need to be settled before the campground opens this spring are:

- Selection of a campground host and the contract for that position
- Selection of a website for accepting reservations and payment
- Overall management and oversight of the campground

The Council agreed on camping rates for the 2022 camping season at the January 10 special meeting. The Council also agreed to hold this special meeting to review, discuss and potentially set the rates for 2023 camping season soon.

The current status of these items:

Selection of Campground Host

The City Council approved an advertisement seeking letters of interest from potential campground hosts at the November 8, 2021 meeting, with a closing date of January 14, 2022. We received 19 letters of interest from people around the country. The City Council has not acted on how to proceed with this process.

Selection of Website and Reservation System

The City Council approved a Request for Proposals at the November 8, 2021 meeting, with a closing date of January 14, 2022. We received 11 proposals. The City Council has not acted on how to proceed with this process.

Overall Management and Oversight of the Campground

The City Council voted in March 2021 to name City Councilors Patti Wallert and Mindy Mackey as liaisons to look into campground operations. Since that time, the liaisons have met periodically to discuss campground operations, but no official scope of work has been defined by the Council.

2023 Camping Rates

The City Council has not made any official decisions regarding rates for 2023.
